Venue and Travel

The conference will take place in the „Elbresidenz“ Bad Schandau near Dresden, Germany.

By plane:

Dresden airport is connected with the large German airports (e.g. Frankfurt, Munich) and there are some direct flights from other European airports (e.g. Zurich, Vienna). Dresden is connected by Intercity or Eurocity trains with the airports at Leipzig (journey time, 1:30 h), Berlin (journey time, 2:30 h), Prague (journey time, 3 h) and Frankfurt (journey time, 4 h). There is a suburban train from the airport to the Dresden main station which operates every 30 min (journey time, 20min).

By train:

There is also a Eurocity connection from Budapest via Prague and Dresden to Berlin which stops in Bad Schandau. The train journey from Budapest lasts approximately 8 hours. From Dresden main station a suburban train to Bad Schandau operates every 30 min (journey time, 45min).

By car:

Drive from Dresden on the autobahn A 17 Dresden-Praha to the autobahn exit Pirna (30 km). Then follow the street number B 172A to Bad Schandau (20 km).

The conference fee includes registration, all meals (including Candlelight Dinner) and accommodation from 22nd- 25th May 2008.

Scientific sessions will begin on Thursday 22nd May at 2 p.m.

The conference will finish on Sunday after breakfast.
